THE RAILWAY WORLD.

Railroad Man as a Banker-A Big Skipment of Cable.

Big Shipment of Cable.

Mr. G. M. Serpell, general manager of the Norfolk division of the Aliantic Coast time Raliway, has just been elected temporary president of the Citizens Bank of Norfolk. He is chosen to fill the unspired term of the late Walter II. Doyle, but announces that he would be invaliding to accept the post permanently. Mr. Serpell will stick to ralicoid work. He was in his early life employed in the construction of the Louisville and Nashville Ralicustion of the Louisville and Nashville Ralicustion of other lines, and since then superintendent.

Work on the proposed trolley line from Roanske into Montgomery and Floyd counties is expected to begin soon. The route has been surveyed and the plans prepared. Floyd is a rich and valuable section, now isolated by lack of railway

TEACH THEM SURGERY.

Talk of Important Instruction Being Given Our Trainmen.

There has been considerable talk from time to time among railways of requiring trainmen to take courses in rudimentary surgery in order that they may be competent to render aid promptly in cases of accident, and at least to be able to relieve suffering. A trainman may be taught to stop the flow of blood, take up a severed artery, administer an opiate or anæsthetic, or take other steps that may save a life or a limb.

The Pennsylvania and some other systems require their trainmen to take such a course. The hospirals of this city have inaugurated the plan of lecturing on these subjects, but attendance of rallway men may be required.

Instances are numerous in which men having a limb crushed have to go for hours without surgery and with absolutely no treatment, when promptness might have saved their lives easily. surgery in order that they may be con

Final Settlement.

Giles II. Vaden, ex-treasurer of Pittsylvania county, was a visitor at the auditor's office yesterday. He came to make a final settlement of his accounts and squared up to the last cent. Mr. Vaden was treasurer of the county for eight years and was candidate for re-election fast fail, but was defeated by a small majority by William D. Duncan. On the day appointed by law he turned over to his suvcessor the books and documents of the office, and since then has been engaged in straightening up for final settlement with the auditor, which was satisfactorily made yesterday. The men in the auditor's office say Mr. Vaden has been one among the most accurate of Virginia county treasurers and one of the most prompt in the matter of settling with the auditor.

Supreme Court of Appeals.

Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday argument in the consolidated cases of the Newport News, Hampton and Old Point Railway and Electric Company vs. the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company was concluded by S. Gordon Cummings for the former and R. G. Blickford for the latter, and the case was submitted.

submitted.

Argument was then resumed in the case of the Atlantic Coast Line Rallway Company and others vs. the Commonwealin, known as the demurrage case. Pending argument by Alexander Hamilton for the rallway company, the court adjourned to treater.

Machine to Revolutionize the Method of Serving Customers in Stores.

Mr. Arthur W. Havens, of this city has patented a unique contrivance called

The machine is designed to aid in quick purchase. It is after the manner of slot machines, and is supplied with a number of small receptacles, under article is deposited, and all the purchaser has to do is to drop the price of the article in the slot, push a brake, and he gets his purchase, vention. Anything may be purchased through it, from a barrel of flour to a stick of candy, and Mr. Havens believes that in the course of a few years the machine will be in use in large stores. to facilitate service.

It may be used in dry goods stores.

It may be used in dry goods stores, cigar stores, grocery stores, confectioneries, tea stores, and, in fact, in any place where quick purchases are desired.

Mr. Havens worked on his invention for several years before he completed it to his own satisfaction.

A stock company is to be organized here for the manufacture of the manufacture of the machine and for the purpose of putting it before the world. The company is to have a large capitalization, and it is proposed to erect a large factory; to employ several hundred persons.

The speaker will be introduced to his audlence by Mr. J. Slewart Bryan.

Mr. Barres has been initimately associated with the work of general education in this country and England for twenty years. As professor of European history in Indiana State University; as professor of education in Stanford University; as staff lecturer for the London Society, for the University extension, and as a general lecturer and writer on education, he has formed a strong circle of fellow-students throughout English-speaking communities.

Possibly his most attractive work has resulted from studies on groups of chilidren in California, in England, and Inmany parts of the Middle and Eastern States. These elementary studies in human nature have become widely known through his lectures and through his volumes of "Studies in Education," and they have attracted and deeply interested large and ones of offered

GREAT OAKS

LITTLE ACORNS

The largest trees sometimes come from the smallest seed. The most far-reaching results frequently have their beginning almost in obscurity. A tiny Tree-Dee want ad, of only twenty-five words may be the foundation of a great fortune. These little persistent business getters are bound to attract attention. One alone in the paper might get lost, but their strength lies in their number. It is impossible to open The Times-Dispatch without seeing the want ads. They remind one ing the want ads. They remind one of a troop of Brownies in the marvel of a troop of Brownies in the marvelous feats which they perform. One little want ad., like one Little Brownie, could do but little, but in a single night the Brownies can build a city, so powerful are they in numbers, and in a day the Tee-Dee want ads. Can turn the tide of business. Thousands and thousands of people read them, because they present themselves no persistently, and because they possess an interest peculiar to themselves. They are full of news and full of bargains; they are home brighteners and business builders.

Those 50 for the want ad, man and talk it over with him.

VANDALS AT WORK SMASHING GLASS

A Number of Broad Street Merchants Suffer Considerable Loss at Their Hands,

Thieves or vandals, pure and simple were at work on Broad Street at an early hour Sunday morning. One or more vandals at an hour somewhat uncertain smached a large pane of glass in the front of the art store of F. Cohen, No. 821 East Broad, and probably about he same time another glass was smashed nto smithereens in the restaurant of C. T. Dickinson, at No. 827 East Broad. The Tragle Drug Company found their street show case, made of plate glass, n front of their store on East Broad, smashed in like marner.
